AS I SEE THEM

Max McGranahan,
Jeepers, what a name.
But with his intellignece
He'll surely rise to fame.

Jack DeBaun is a handsome lad,
He surely is a pipper,
All his classmates know him as
Notorious Jack the Ripper.

Bob Warren is a grocery man,
He sells most everything,
He runs his customers all away
Trying to impersonate Bing.

Bev is known as Ryan the flirt,
She really flirts a-lot,
She wears those sweaters and tight skirts,
And oh! what a figure she has got.

Patsy Smith is a shy little girl,
So timid, backward, and meek.
She works so hard in every class
And rarely even speaks.

Doris Watts is a friendly kind,
No heart was ever warmer,
I guess after she graduates
She'll just be a farmer.

Julia is the famous rider
Of horse wild and tame,
If she joined some rodeo
She would rise to fame.

Gosh-oh-gee what will it be
At Monte High without you,
Of course you know just who we mean
Our little Emmie Lou.

Our little Eddie Keller
Fills Florann's heart with joy,
If a cetain Bemis finds it out
There'll be one less Senior boy.

Donald Myers has eyes of brown,
And teeth of a sparkling hue,
He has loads of endearing charms,
And a smile that will captivate you.

When Ernie Payton was on the team
Every game was a cinch,
But since he fell down and stepped on himself
He gets to warm the bench.

Helen Ann is our artist,
She draws magnificant scenes,
If she continues this type of art
She'll be painting kings and queens.

John Adams has hair of red,
And plenty of freckles too,
He'll be a success at anything,
At least I think so--don't you?

Betty Lou is a basketball fan,
The star player is her man.
But some of his shots aren't so fine,
He trys to shoot and watch her at the same time.

Rosanna Ash has lots of beaus,
They come from near and far,
They think that she is pretty cute,
But Oh! how she plays that guitar.

Delmas is a hotshot player,
He makes the spectators cheer,
When he goes to shoot a basketball
Every rivals heart is filled with fear.

Mary Louise is quite a gal,
The pride of the Senior class,
Besides being cute as a button,
She's a very smart little lass.

One of the Senior girls
Is always late for class,
If you say Joan Millikan
You won't need another guess.

Christie's just been at Monte High
About four months or so,
And now he's grabbed poor Shirley's heart
And he won't let her go.

LOOKING INTO 1962

One cold day in the late fall of the year of 1962, Mrs. Charles Norris, the former Miss Beverly Ryan, had a yearning to visit her home town and her old school mates. She decided to go to P & M's, the high school hangout, and whom should she see but Emma Lou Marshall, still jerking sodas. They immediately started to gossip and gab as in the old days.

They talked of themselves first; Beverly telling of her marriage to Charles Norris and of her two children, Kenny and Bobby Mac, named after two former friends. Emma said she was now President of the Soda Jerkers Union. She said she was planning to make a career of it. The conversation then turned to their former school-mates. "Did you know," said Emma, "that Julia Pearman is entering her horse, Pet, in the 1963 Kentucky Derby? She already owns the largest horse farm in the state." "What's Rosanna Ash doing?" asked Bev, "she and Julia used to be together alot." "You mean you haven't read her columns?" asked Emma Lou. "She's editor of a Lonely Hearts Column, it's in every leading newspaper. I've written to her several times. Her column has certainly helped me."

"I suppose you saw Doris Jean Watts on your way here." added Emma. "Yes, I stopped and chatted with her for a while, she certainly has a large ice-cream stand. She says she's planning to be married to Kenny Tyler. What about the rest of the girls?" asked Beverly.

"Betty Johns and Bill Crockett are now Mr. and Mrs. Joan Millikan is head nurse at the Army hospital at Fort Houston, Texas, she is engaged to be married soon." "What ever became of Patsy Smith?" asked Beverly. "Oh, haven't you heard, she is the superintendent of a comptometer school. Bev, you just must see Walt Disney's new film because Helen Payton has her newest character cartoons in it." supplied Emma.

"Mary Louise Smith is at last Mrs. Bonner Allee. She also works part time as a secretary at the Farm Bureau in Indianapolis." continued Emma Lou. "You've told me about the girls, now what about the fellows? Surely some of them are still around here." said Beverly. "John Adams is now a Seaman 1st Class in the U. S. Navy, who knows, he might even be an admiral some day. Ed Keller, Ernest Payton, and Carroll Plank own and operate their own "hot rods" in Jungle Park. As you recall, Jack DeBaun always said he'd be president. Well, he is, President of the Garbage Collectors Union. But he's definitely the best looking president they ever had. Max McGrannahan owns the largest chicken hatchery in Coloma, he got tired of milking cows." finished Emma. "You remember Don Myers, don't you?" asked Beverly. "Well what is he doing now?" "Oh," supplied Emma, "he runs a florist shop in West Union, with all kinds of little 'Rosies'." "And what about Duck Warren, Emma?" Emma replied, "He's quacking around in the south Pacific on a small cruiser for the Navy. Delmas Cox owns three acres of farm land near Bloomingdale, he has a herd of four cattle and ten ducks. And last, but not least, is Bob Christie, who has gone to Japan to join his father. He planned to go right after graduation but got too interested in home affairs to leave. His wife, Shirley, and baby boy are going as soon as Bob can get things prepared for them. Try to come to our next class reunion, Bev, and you'll get some first hand information.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Patsy Smith, will my ability to get along with Miss Pagliero to Bertha Crockett, provided she doesn't get mad every-time Miss Pagliero calls her down.

I, Don Myers, will my ability to get along with the Hills-dale girls to Jack Clow provided he leaves one alone.

I, Ernie Payton, will my desire to break Carroll Plank's neck in basketball practice, because he broke my leg to Larry Wittenmyer.

I, Ed Keller, will my ability to make up to Mr. Hoopingarner when I miss school to Jack Wilburn.

I, Rosanna Ash, will my electric Hawaiian guitar to June Delp, provided she doesn't get s hocked.

I, Doris Jean Watts, will my ability to square dance to Florann Woodard provided she doesn't take my partner.

I, John Adams, will my ability to get an advance copy of the Physics test to Ronnie Thomas.

I, Mary Louise Smith, will my ability to keep office to Phyllis Bradley provided she doesn't spend more than three hours a day there.

I, Bob Warren, will my ability to be late and absent to Bill Crockett provided he doesn't let Mr. Hoopingarner catch him and make him stay after school.

I, Jack DeBaun, will my ability to play basketball to Monk Flynn provided he gets along with Mr. Henson. And I also will my ability to get along with Pagliero and Flicek to Bill Crockett.

I, Helen Ann Payton, will my ability to get out of classes for band to Florann Woodard, provided she does't use her nose as the slide on the trombone, also my ability to squeak my clar-inet to anyone who can do a better job than I can.

I, Beverly Ryan, will my ability to play basketball to June Delp provided there is a girls basketball team for her to play on the rest of her years in school.

I, Emma Lou Marshall, will my quick movements to Shirley Wheeler provided she doesn't knock every thing down.

I, Max McGrannahan, will my geometrical ability to Mr. Flicek provided he knows a geometric figure from a human figure when he sees one.

I, Betty Lou Johns, will my ability to make C's in Citizenship and still sit with my boy friend at school to Mary Etta Doan provided she doesn't sit too close.

I, Delmas Cox, will my ability to be a bulldozer on the basketball floor to Jack Clow provided he doesn't get mad and ruin all our basketball players.

I, Bob Christie, will my basketball ability to Bob Cox and my ability to charm the girls to Buckwheat Clow.

I, Julia Pearman, will my ability to ride a horse to Alice Beach provided she doesn't fall off.

I, Joan Millikan, will my ability to call Mr. Hill "Stupid" in Physics class to Bill Crockett provided he doesn't get below a C.

We, Beverly Ryan and Emma Lou Marshall, will our job at P & M Sundries to Laura Lou Skeeters and Carol Sue Burgett provided they stay until they graduate.

HISTORY OF SENIORS DURING 1949-50

The Class of '50 started their Senior year with ten girls and eight boys. On December 5th Bob Christie joined our ranks.

Our class is usually calm and peaceful but we were destined to have little harmony this last year. The first discord came because of geometry. Although we were not fond of "math" we were persuaded that the subject was "relatively simple". So against our better judgment we struggled along for three hours a day with these simple problems.

Making plans for our graduation exercises was not the happy event it should have been. We were divided as to whether we should have Baccalaureate in the Presbyterian church or make a change to the Methodist. After viewing the interiors of both churches and having had much heated and aimless discussion we took a vote. It was close, but tradition won.

Next came the subject of how to replenish our depleted class treasury. Several means were mentioned but they all sounded like work; we weren't very enthusiastic. After many controversial votes we decided to put on a play in April.

Toward the last of February we worked frantically to meet the deadline on our annual. These were hectic days and nights.

This, we think, covers the highlights of our senior year.

IN MEMORY

We take this space in memory of our former classmate, Georgie Peterson, who passed away in our fourth year of school.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

Emma Lou Marshall, typist; Delmas Cox, sports writer; Jack DeBaun, assistant editor; Ed Keller, art editor; and Betty Johns, activity reporter.

SPRING FEVER

The Senior Class has selected the three-act comedy, "Spring Fever", for presentation the nights of April 4th and 5th under the direction of Mrs. Williams and Mr. Hoopingarner.

Jacky Howard (Bob Christie) is the typical young man of seventeen; he carries the weight of the world upon his shoulders. Since his father's death, his younger sister, Peggy, (Patsy Smith) and his mother, (Helen Ann Payton) have been living with Aunt Eulalie (Joan Millikan). It is a struggle to exist because the money the father left them is being saved for the children's education. Jacky feels dependent on his spinster aunt and would like to be able to support them all. At present he is involved in his first romance. The object of his adoration is Spring Billington, (Mary Louise Smith) the belle of the town. Jacky and his rivals find it very difficult to keep up with Spring and her many whims and fancies. Every week or so she seems to have a new ideal. First it is William Powell, then Bing Crosby and finally the President himself. Naturally, trying to live up to these many personalities keeps the boys on the jump, especially Jacky, who has first invented a product that is bound to eventually make him a millionaire. Peggy intends to finance her brother's invention by selling hair tonic—a product of her own make. A neighbor buys it and her hair starts falling out. To further add to the troubles, Aunt Euly's stocks go down to almost nothing and just when she has fallen in love with Jacky's athletic coach. Things seem pretty hopeless when the tide turns and certain events happen that seem to guarantee the family's future independence and happiness.

Price, (Bob Warren) the fond father of Baby "Bodkins", turns in an unusual characterization as do Ray, (Don Myers) Jacky's chum, Mr. Knight, (Ernest Payton) the athletic coach, Donna, (Emma Lou Marshall) Price's wife and Tessie, (Beverly Ryan) the slow moving, slow speaking, slow thinking maid.

SENIOR FAREWELL

Although this is the time we have been waiting for patiently during the past four years, it is also time to say Farewell. We bid farewell to our classmates, our teachers, and our school. While it is a sad event as are most good-byes, it is at the same time a happy one. We will miss our fellow students but we are eager to venture forth and prove ourselves better men and women. For the rest of our lives we will remember and appreciate our days at Montezuma.

Juniors

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

At the beginning of the first semester the Junior Class had seven boys and eight girls. The class officers were as follows:

| | First Semester | Second Semester |
|---|---|---|
| President | Florann Woodard | Bill Crockett |
| Vice-President | Mary Etta Doan | Ronnie Thomas |
| Secretary | Shirley Wheeler | Carroll Plank |
| Treasurer | Phyllis Bradley | Bertha Crockett |
| Student Council | Martha Peterson | Martha Peterson |
| Student Council | Lowell Roberts | Jack Clow |

At the Fall Festival the Junior Class gave away a blanket, had a cake walk, and a basketball throw. Our class had no parties during the first semester but we had an exciting time putting on a play, "Nuts and Bolts", with Mr. Hill, our sponsor, directing.

The second semester started and plans were made for the Junior-Senior Prom. The Prom, which is the social high-light of the year, will be held in the ballroom at the Hotel Deming in Terre Haute, March 17, 1950.

Early in 1950 John Fisher entered Montezuma High School bringing the Junior Class total to sixteen. May all sixteen graduate together next year.

NUTS AND BOLTS

When the masterful Miss Rebecca Bolt, (Phyllis Bradley) whose hobby is psychoanalysis, inherits a spooky old mansion from an eccentric brother, she turns it into a sanitarium for patients with phobias and nervous diseases, much to the dismay of her niece, Benita (Martha Peterson). Whereupon, the nuts start to pour in, and the fun begins in earnest. Lutie Spinks, (Florann Woodard) the man-hating maid, has a nervous habit of winking that gets her into trouble with flirations men patients. Gertie Glossop (Bertha Crockett) has a contagion-phobia and all but asphyxiates everybody else with her various spraying machines. Cadwalleder Clippy (Jack Wilburn) has a cat-phobia and is frightened nearly out of his wits by the pet cat of malicious little Wilbur, (Bob Cox) a problem child. Prunella Figg (Shirley Wheeler) suffers from claustrophobia, Martha Grubb, (Jean Bennett) the cook, fairly wallows in melancholy, and Plunkett, (Ronnie Thomas) the foxy, family lawyer, develops a persecution complex while Henry, (Jack Clow) the Negro porter, harbors a natural fear of lunatics and all their works. Even Twink Starr, (Lowell Roberts) Benita's young man, whose suit is tabooed by Rebecca, joins the company of nuts in disguise, parading an acute case of delusions of grandeur, in hope of finding a chance to soften the hard heart of Rebecca. Hilarious situations develop with the arrival of Dr. Hippocrates Joy, (Bill Crockett) a synthetic psychiatrist, who undertakes to cure the patients. Complications multiply as Rebecca searches for her deceased brother's money, which he has left hidden about the house, providing in a freak will that a portion of it to go to anyone who happens to find it. It soon becomes apparent that most of the patients are fakes searching for the money.

Sophomores

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The Sophomore Class of '49 and '50 began the school year with seventeen members, eight boys and nine girls. Three members were added since last year, Pat Flynn, from Brooklyn, New York, Bill Terry from Eminence, Indiana, and John Peer from Marshall, Indiana. Only one, Bob Boswell, dropping from the enrollment.

The Sophomore's goal for this year was to make money preparing for their Junior year. At the school carnival, the Sophomores had several concessions which made a reasonable profit. The money from the King and Queen votes helped too, the amount being the second highest made. The King and Queen candidates were Joan Bennett and Larry Wittenmyer. At the Variety Show, Bill Terry, Laura Lou Hochhalter, Joan Bennett, Shirley DeBaun, June Delp and Anita Gill helped provide entertainment. The class sold chances on a "Talking Doll" which was given away at a home basketball game.

Several boys from the class are basketball players with promising athletic abilities; they are Warren Adams, Larry Wittenmyer, Donald Thompson, Morris Krout, and Pat Flynn. The girls also have a basketball team with the following girls participating; Barbara Woody, Barbara Lewis, Joan Bennett, June Delp, Anita Gill, Shirley DeBaun and Velma Sherrill. Their student manager is Laura Lou Hochhalter. Several girls take part in the high school band and chorus. Anita Gill, Joan Bennett and Shirley DeBaun from the Sophomore Class are the high school cheer leaders.

The class has selected and ordered their class rings and believe they have made a fine selection.

At the Junior Class play Laura Lou Hochhalter, Bill Terry and Joan Bennett provided the inter-acts.

The Sophomores sponsored a Valentine Dance February 11th and at a later date sponsored a bake sale.

The class held several parties; one at Velma Sherrill's home, a skating part, a Christmas party and two chili suppers. At the end of the school year the class held a picnic.

The Sophomores have had a successful year and appreciate the fine guidance their sponsor, Mr. Nicoson, has given them.

The class officers this year were as follows:

| | First Semester | Second Semester |
|---|---|---|
| President | Morris Krout | Joan Bennett |
| Vice-President | Laura Hochhalter | Laura Hochhalter |
| Secretary-Treasurer | Bill Terry | Shirley DeBaun |
| Student Council | Jim Peterson | Morris Krout |
| | Anita Lou Gill | Anita Lou Gill |

Freshmen

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

At the beginning of the year, Mr. Charles Flicek was elected sponsor of the Freshman class. The officers were elected as follows: Robert Jones, president; Frank Sanford, vice-president; David Roberts, secretary; DeElda Payton, treasurer.

A party of the Freshman class was held at the home of Leon Mathas. Most of the class attended and everybody enjoyed it. Mr. Flicek and his wife attended also.

For the carnival, the class ran a bingo stand, a popcorn stand, and a bean jar. Our part in the Variety Show consisted of selections by a girls vocal trio. The girls were Carol Sue Burgett, Joan Rennick, and Barbara Wilburn.

The Freshman and Sophomore classes held another party at Lee's Roller Rink in Montezuma. Attendance at this party was also good.

EIGHTH GRADE HISTORY

The eighth grade class of 1949-50 participated in a number of activities this year. We entered a number of amusements in the school carnival which brought us a net amount of $15.75. Richard Pitman and Patty Wheeler, our candidates, were elected Prince and Princess of the carnival.

The officers of our class were Jerry Upp, president; Don Hayworth, vice-president; Joyce Harvey, secretary; Gilbert Lawson, treasurer; and Ronnie Bauman, student council representative. The class elected Mr. Henson as sponsor.

TIGER BASEBALL

The Montezuma Tiger baseball team had a very successful season, winning five games and losing none. The boys showed a great deal of ability and will be heard from in years to come as the "Aztecs" on the diamond for Montezuma High.

SEVENTH GRADE HISTORY

The seventh grade experienced some difficulty coming up the stairs at the beginning of the school year in 1949 but this difficulty was overcome. Mr. Wheeler was chosen as sponsor. The class officers were as follows: Jim Rose, president; Don Daniels, vice-president; Jadine Warren, secretary; and Victor Edwards, student council member.

A peep show and a treasure chest were the concessions sponsored by the seventh grade in the school carnival.

Parties held by the seventh grade were a skating party at Lee's Roller Rink in November and a Valentine party in the school gymnasium in February.

Athletics

THE COACHES SPEAK

You may never have participated actively in the game of basketball, but if you are like the average Hoosier, you are an interested spectator. If you have chosen to be only a sideline participant you have found basketball makes your life more zestful and pleasurable. If you have ever played you have an even deeper interest and understanding of the game.

Each boy who plays puts forth all his effort to provide thrills, action, stamina, endurance, and clean sportsmanship, combined with perfect co-ordination of mind and muscle. Basketball is a game which requires both skill and practice. Our squad this year was willing to practice in an attempt to gain more skill. It can be said that each player showed some improvement, either in defense, offense, hitting the hoop, dribbling or passing.

Those who will not be back playing basketball for Monte are Jack DeBaun, Boo Warren, Delmas Cox, Bob Christie and Ernie Payton. We will add some "Freshies" to our squad next year and are anticipating a very successful season.

Floyd E. Henson

Indiana schools are noted for their excellence in basketball. One of the main reasons for this is that the youngsters of this state are handed a basketball soon after they pass the toddling stage. From then on the game of basketball takes a prominent position along with the three "R's".

Montezuma, in a few years, should be able to place a very capable group of players on the hardwood floor if the performance of its "Tiger" team this year indicates its future ability to play the cage game.

The Tigers, comprising seventh and eighth grade students, faced an especially difficult schedule of nineteen games. The team has learned the necessary fundamentals of team spirit and co-operation this year.

Montezuma can be justly proud of its Tiger Team and look forward expectantly to the years when the "Tigers" will wear the name "Aztecs" and carry the purple and white into victories.

V. Richard Nicoson

Nature gives us talent but it is for man to make it work.

PARENT TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Parent Teachers Association opened the school year of 1949-50 with eighty members and the following officers:

|---|---|
| President | Lucille Smith |
| Vice-President | Glenn Rose, Martha Bartlett |
| Secretary | Martha Burke |
| Treasurer | Genola Payton |

Our goal for the year was to effect a better understanding between parent, teacher, and child. We believe that,to some extent, this has been accomplished.

We have aided financially by purchasing reading materials, and uniforms for the three cheer leaders. Our organization has given generously to the Red Cross fund, to the Riley Hospital, the March of Dimes, and have given help to needy families.

We have been able to raise funds by putting on a Chicken Supper in October and a county wide Home Talent Barn Dance Show in February. The jamboree was a huge financial success.

The County Nurse has visited our school regularly this year. For the first time in many years, a period has been set aside for devotions which are attended by the upper nine grades.

FALL FESTIVAL

For many years it has been the custom for the entire school to co-operate in an affair known as the Fall Festival. The Festival is given furing the Halloween season and a carnival spirit prevails. Classes, grades, and organizations vie with one antoher in trying to show the most profit from their stands. Classes elect their own king and queen. During the Festival and days preceding it, the class king and queens go about soliciting votes. Votes are cast by dropping coins in a box. On Festival night every one assembles in the auditorium for the Variety Show and finally as a climax of the evening, the money which the classes have earned by votes is counted. The boy and girl bringing in the most money are crowned King and Queen of the Festival. This year's Seniors, Emma Lou Marshall and Bob Warren, reigned with Pat Wheeler and Dick Pitman as Prince and Princess.
